Author Visit: Gail Kittleson – Jumpstarting Your Creativity Workshop

Join us Saturday, Nov. 20 from 10:00-11:30am as Gail Kittleson, an Iowa author, gives a writing workshop on Jumpstarting Your Creativity.

Gail Kittleson of St. Ansgar, Iowa is an accomplished writer of historical fiction. Drawing readers in with real-life inspired characters. Her extensive research paints a realistic background that draws into a world of multi-dimension characters. When Gail's not steeped in World War II historical research, writing, or editing, you'll find her reading for fun, gardening, or enjoying her grandchildren in Northern Iowa. She delights in interacting with readers who fall in love with her characters.

Gail Kittleson taught college expository writing and ESL before writing women's historical fiction. From northern Iowa, she facilitates writing workshops and women's retreats, and enjoys the Arizona Ponderosa forest in winter.

Register now to reserve your spot for this fun and engaging program with a local author!
