

25 Year Community Open House

Thursday, April 2 | 5:00-7:00 PM

The Sumner Public Library is celebrating 25 years in its current building with a community open house.

Community members are invited to stop by to explore the library, enjoy refreshments, and take part in activities for all ages while celebrating the library's history as a place for learning, connection, and discovery.

Silent Book Club

Monday, April 6 | 5:30 PM

Join us for a pleasant night of light refreshments and silently reading with no distractions from your everyday life.

Teen Night

Tuesday, April 7 | 4:00-5:30PM

Adventure awaits!

Join us as we embark on a new adventure! If you are unsure if you want to jump into the D&D world, come and watch and ask us questions and we will gladly explain.

Whether you're a seasoned adventurer or brand-new to the game, there's a seat at the table for you.

80's Trivia at Ten Wasp Brewery

Thursday, April 16 | 6:00 PM

Think you know the 1980s? Join us for a fun evening of trivia in the back party room at Ten Wasp Brewery. Come early to grab food and drinks and claim your spot before the game begins.

Teams of 3-6 players are welcome, but space is limited, we are accepting only eight teams to keep the event comfortable for everyone.

Participation is free, though donations to the library are welcome. All proceeds will support future library programming.

To reserve your team's spot, contact the brewery as soon as possible. Gather your friends, brush up on your 80s knowledge, and get ready for a great night of trivia!

Pressed Flower Votives

Tuesday, April 21 | 5:30PM

Add a little nature-inspired glow to your week! Join us for a relaxing craft session where we'll create beautiful pressed flower votive candle holders. Using delicate dried flowers and simple materials, you'll design a unique candle holder that softly lights up the colors and patterns of nature.

No experience needed, just bring your creativity! It's the perfect way to unwind, get crafty, and leave with a handmade piece that adds warmth and charm to any space.

Chess Club

Monday, April 27 | 5:00 PM

Open to players of all skill levels, the club offers a welcoming space to learn the game, practice strategies, and enjoy friendly matches with fellow chess enthusiasts.

Whether you're brand new to chess or a seasoned player, come sharpen your skills, meet new people, and have fun at the library.

Wondrous Words:

Bosky (adj.) a word for places thick with trees, where the air smells of bark and rain, and green stretches in every direction.

Monthly Quote:

The world is full of magic things, patiently waiting for our senses to grow sharper.

W.B. Yeats
