

Online Resource Spotlight:

Sumner's Local Newspaper Archive website has been updated to include newspapers from January 1881 through June 2020. Searches can be narrowed down to year, month, and even days.

Don't know when the event you are searching for happened? No problem! A simple word search can bring up results for people, places, AND events.

With printable pages and clip-able images, the Local Newspaper Archive is the first place any local genealogy researcher should start.
