PUBLIC LIBRARY AUGUST 2026

Teen Night:

Tuesday, August 4 | 4:00-5:30PM

And the adventures continue! If you are new or a seasoned D&D player, there is a place for you here! We will be starting a new campaign and encourage anyone interested to come and check it out! Grades 6 through 12.

Adult Craft:

Tuesday, August 18 | 5:30PM

Working with old book pages can result in beautiful works of art. Join us as we turn dictionary pages into cute framed masterpieces. Whether you're an experienced crafter or trying something new, you'll enjoy a fun and relaxing evening of creativity, conversation, and community. All supplies will be provided.

Space is limited, so be sure to call and sign up in advance to reserve your spot.

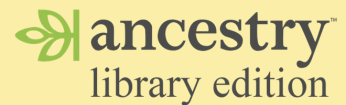

Discover Your Family History with Ancestry Library Edition:

Have you ever wondered where your ancestors came from or wanted to learn more about your family's story? Ancestry Library Edition is a powerful genealogy resource available free to use at our library.

Whether you're just beginning your family history journey or you're an experienced genealogist, Ancestry Library Edition makes it easy to uncover fascinating details about your ancestors. Search for names, discover historical documents, and build a deeper understanding of your family's past.

Library staff are happy to help you get started. Ancestry Library Edition is available on the library's public computers during library hours, making it a great resource for anyone interested in local history, genealogy, or preserving family stories.

Every family has a story waiting to be discovered. Visit the library and see where your search takes you!

Read, Learn, Grow with 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten:

Give your child a great start by joining our 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten program! This free program encourages families to read together and build the early literacy skills children need before starting school.

Getting to 1,000 books is easier than it sounds, even reading one book a day gets you there in less than three years. Best of all, favorite books can be read again and again, and every reading counts!

Stop by the library to register, track your progress, and celebrate reading milestones along the way. It's never too early to start a lifelong love of reading!

Library News: Library Float Wins 1st Place at Sumner Days Parade!

We're excited to share that our library float earned 1st Place in the Sumner Days Parade! A huge thank you to the Crow Family for their creativity, hard work, and dedication in designing and building our award-winning float. We also appreciate our library board members and volunteers who helped with all the finishing touches that brought it together.

We're grateful for everyone who contributed and for the amazing community support that made this accomplishment possible. Thank you, and congratulations to all who helped make our float a success!
